Directed by action anthropologist Christoph Borkowsky Akbar, PIRANHA Musik has been swimming among the sharks of the music industry since 1987. The Berlin based independent label and music publisher is one of the leading international producers of global-centric music. With more than 100 releases so far it became a tastemaker brand to make you travel with your ears, introducing local stars as well as insider and top tips from Africa, the Orient, Europe, or the Americas to a worldwide, off-mainstream audience. Diversity rules, the world is our culture.

To celebrate 20 years of PIRANHA in 2007, each month we will release a fresh musical choice - reloading highlights and hidden gems from our repertoire. Each selection is compiled by one of the worldwide DJ-friends of PIRANHA. Beware!, sequencing is important - you can just listen for your pleasure or download the whole thing straight away.

In Berlin DJ Soko and his BalkanBeats crew have already reached cult status with their driving club mix of Brass music, reworked traditional tunes and classic Jugo-krackers, exporting the event in the meantime as far as New York and Los Angeles. In 2006 their new "BalkanBeats (vol 2)" CD was released by the hot Berlin Eastbloc label. More info at www.balkanbeats.de

For "Brass Attack" DJ Soko has chosen titles by Boban & Marko Markovic, Fanfare Ciocarlia, Frank London's Klezmer Brass Allstars and the Hasaballah Brass Band, who made PIRANHA one of the top addresses for the current Brass dancefloor craze. But he used some anti-clockwise tunes from The Klezmatics as well for a little "V"-effect in between. Use it to accompany your late-night drinking & dancing party or against your hang-over on the morning after - as you like. Enjoy.
